SELLING RACE TROUBLES BREAK OUT AMONG OWNERS IN THE EAST.

Extra Day of Racing at Sheepshead Bay Attracts Large Patronage-Arasee Beats Effendi and Nimbus in Handicap Feature of Card.

New York, July 12.—The third extra day of racing during the Coney Island Jockey Club's summer meeting was remarkably partended considering showed an evident intention by the public to see the Sheepshead Bay racing out in great shape. The weather was sunny with the usual sea breeze and the humidity so trying in New York City was not noticeable at the track. Arasee, especially well ridden by A. G. Blakeley's apprentice, defeated Effendi and Nimbus, the remaining starters in the principal race of the extra card, the Pontiac Handicap at one mile and a sixteenth, with unexpected ease. The Emery gelding was the outsider in the betting at 3 to 1 and emphasized his ability to chery from behind and win like a stratect attention and he is generally credited with being an extra good judge of pace.

After Little King had won the third race under selling conditions over the grass course from Glennadeane, St. Dunstan, Inspired and Top Notch, he was bid up from $500 to $1,200 by J. L. McGinnis, owner of Inspired. Little King's owners bought the colt in with the customary advance of $5 and subsequently retaliated by claiming Glennadeane, the runner-up, for $1,150. McGinnis also claimed St. Dunstan, which finished third, for $1,350. If its Hought the bidding and claiming proceeding, who will be a subsequently retaliated by claiming Glennadeane (at a price below his real value. A. G. Blakeley, the trainer, offered the Chelsea Stable $500 bonus on Glennadeane and chelared his intention of bidding up hereafter any winner of a selling race entered at a price below his real value. A. G. Blakeley, the trainer, offered the Chelsea Stable $500 bonus on Glennadeane's purchase price and the filly will probably revert to her previous owner. McGinnis was thought to have secured a real barrain in St. Dunstan, whose defeat was generally believed to have been a fluke. Jockey Grand's losing effort on J. N. Canden's grand looking two-year-old provoked much unfavorable criticism, but it developed that there was no truth to a report in circulatio

Harry Brolaski, who was instrumental in obtaining from the Mexican government a concession for race track privileges at Tia Juana, is still solourning at the City of Mexico. The races began at 10 a. m., and the six of them were run off in fine style. The main event was for two-year-olds, and was won by Star Eyes, a colt by Star Shoot—Dreamy Eyes.

THE LAWRENCE REALIZATION

No other stake race for three-year-olds equal in value to the Lawrence Realization is to be disposed of in the course of American racing of the coming summer and autumn, a circumstance that adds to the Importance of this afternoon's concest. The race was devised as a sequel to the Futurity, but has never attained the ultimate value of $50,000 predicted for it when it was founded, its greatest value being in its fest year of running, when it netted $34,100 to the account of Salvator. Still, it has always ranked as one of the foremost of our races and, with Salvator, Tournament, Potomac, Tammany, Dobbins, Requital, The Friar, Hamburg, Ethelbert, Major Daingerfield, Africander, Ort Wells, Sysonby and Fair Play, presents an illustrious list of grand three-year-olds among its winners. It is emphatically a race for stayers, its one mile and five furlongs being certain to find and expose any deficiency in stamina. Its fastest running was in 1903, when the splendid Africander defeated Golden Maxim and Savable and, in running the distance in 2:45%, set a record that remains undisturbed to this day. The record of the race is as follows:

SECOND HALF OF THE DOUBLE EVENT

The running of the second half of the Double Event will be a companion piece to the Lawrence Realization this afternoon. The first half was won June 24 by the added starter, Dalmatian, and if he should win the second part today he will receive an extra $200 in plate. Last year it was of $10,000 guaranteed value, with an extra $1,000 to the winner if it had also won the first part, while this year it has $1,000 added. Excellent two-year-olds have always won the second half of the Double Event, conspicuous among them being such noted young horses as Russell, Victory, Hornpipe, Cesarion, Handspring, Ornament, Hamburg, Jean Bereaud, Mesmerist, Water Pearl, Stamina and Sir Martin. FAVORABLE DECISION IN OKLAHOMA.

Gambling Laws of State Do Not Affect Bookmaking -Prosecution Pushed on Another Point.

Enid, Okla., July 12.—A demurrer to information charging bookmakers at the local race meeting with gambling, was sustained in the County Court by Judge J. B. Cullison. Before the hearing on the demurrer, the defense made an affidavit that they could not secure a fair trial before Judge Cullison and reposed an application for a change of judge, under the new law.

At the hearing on the demurrer the prosecution attempted to show that the offense was covered by the statute on gambling. Judge Cullison held that the word "device" did not include such gambling as bookmaking, but intimated that they could be constituted in the statute covering the public peace.

Deturn the statute covering the public peace. The cases, later filed mey Church, who is handling the cases, later filed mey Church, who is handling the cases, later filed matter to the case will be vigorously prosecuted. Races are being held and bookmaking allowed in other cities in the state, and this is considered a test case to determine whether the state laws will cover the matter. It will probably reach the Supreme Court, regardless of the decision in the lower court.

At that meeting the Jockey Club adopted a rule that 'no weight shall be allotted to any heart in a meeting middle matter than the last run three times the Litted Agent and Lord Durham, in a long speech proposing when he rule, cited numerous cases, mostly American, in its support. He considered that the management, training and running of American borses this year has been absolutely above reproach. It was not the fault of the owners of the horses or the jockeys that the handicapper did not know how to weight the borses, but the fault of the Jockey Club, because it allowed handicappers to adjust weights for horses they had never seen.

In his opinion, the American horses this year had been strongly and wonderfully handicapped. He then instanced numerous cases in which, he said, handicappers had either taken the American form that merely guessed, and he declared that he regarded manufactured to another pure farce, and the second Brassekhad or handicapping a pure farce, lord Brassekhad or handicapping a pure farce, and the second brassekhad or handicapping a pure farce, and the second brassekhad or handicappers had been lenent did not justified met and troublesome rule. Glennadeane, away badly, trailed early and closed an immense gap in the last quarter into a rushing second and was unlucky. St. Dunstan ran pocketed under a pull, was shut off by Inspired and carried out and generally messed about, then failed to get up in a fast finish. Inspired ran in nearest pursuit to the stretch and quit badly. Top Notch trailed in the middle running and was gaining fast at the end. The winner, entered for $500, was bid up to $1,200 by J. L. Winner—Ch. c, by Golderest—Francolin (trained by G. Cornnell).

Went to post at 4:52. At post 2 minutes, Start fair. Won handly; second and third driving. Everett, after forward and persistent pursuit from the start, drew out decisively in the final furlong. Christina set the pace to midway of the stretch and tired in the closing drive. Bang, away badly, worked through a rough journey and, closing a big gap on the extreme outside, just failed to get up in a whirtwind stretch rush and was best. M. R. Williams finished well. Ben Loyal was a prominent contender for four and a half furlongs. Eddic Dugan lapped the leaders for a half mile and quit badly. Foursome ran in nearest attendance to midway of the stretch and tired. Hibernica was going fast at the end. Pocket is a good looker. Crack Shooter was away badly.

GOING INTO RACING MORE EXTENSIVELY.

New York. July 12.—That Robert F. Little, the gentleman whose colors the stout little Prince of Melbourne gelding. The Squire, Is bearing with credit this season, intends to go into racing on a somewhat extended scale, became evident at the Keene yearling sale Saturday. Mi Little was an Keene yearling sale Saturday. Mi Little was an extended to the sale of the sale sale saturday. Mi Little was an extended in making three prominent purchages. He paid $3,100 for a bay cell by Ben Briss, out of White Rose: $1,000 for a bay filly, by Disguise, out of Anomaly, and $500 for a bay filly, by Disguise, out of Anomaly, and $500 for a bay filly, by Disguise, out of Anomaly was the dam of a no less faurous horse than Superman, the Brooklyn Handleap winner in 1906, and the filly from her that Mr. Little purchased is a sister to Superman. The Ben Brush—White Rose colt is a half-brother to Rose Oneen, a mare that is making things hum in Canada these that it is a later of the sale of the colt to $2,000. But he paid $400 for a cell by Fire of Melbourne, out of Lily Gray. Mr. Little is a New Yorker of ample means with a liking for race horses. It is probable that Thomas Weish, who is handling The Souire for him, may train the youngsters he purchased,

NOMINATIONS TO SARATOGA'S STAKES

Best of the Year from the East, West and Canada Named to Race in Them.

Named to Race in Them.

It is no wonder that the officials of the Saratoga Association expressed profound satisfaction with the patronage awarded them when the entries to their latest stake list had been opened, examined and counted. The best in the United States and Canada have been named for its various events, and it results that Saratoga racing of this year will be of the highest class possible. The meeting is always one that affords something new to stimulate curiosity and interest. John Sanford always brings some previously been seen in action, and never fails to bring good ones. The New York horses meet the pick of the western horses and the Canadian horses and their clashing is frequently attended with unexpected results. Other opportunities always mark the meeting. For instance, Fitz Herbert and Maskette Gravesend or Sheepshead Bay, but at Saratoga the crack colo and crack mass stakes, and their first meeting must excite profound interest.

To show what a feast for racing folks next month is in store at Saratoga, entries to four representative stakes are here given. They are the Saratoga Handicap, the chief event of that kind of the meeting; the Champlain and Huron Handicaps, to both of which Fitz Herbert and Maskette are nominated, as also are the Derby winners Wintergreen, Olambala and Plute; and the Hopeful stakes, for two-year-olds, The latter is the most valuable race of the meeting, and will bring out, besides those which have already run well in public, quite a number of supposed excellence that are in reserve for this rich stake.

The Saratoga Handicap of $5,000.—For three-year-olds and upward. By subscription of $50 each. Starters to nay $100 additional. Guaranteed gross

THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

Of the thirty jockeys leading in number of winning mounts, J. Reid made the greatest progress in the course of the past two weeks by finishing in front nineteen times, actually scoring more wins in the two weeks than he had in the remainder of the year previously. Whether this marks indeed to the year previously. Whether this marks indeed to the year previously a bit of luck remains to be seen. Next to him was J. Howard, with twelve wins. No others obtained double figures, but V. Powers, Mctee and Musgrave, with nine winners each, were not far away from doing so. The records of the thirty leaders are:

BAYARDO IS THE ST. LEGER FAVORITE.

culation Over the Great Race at Doncaster -English Figures and News.

London, Eng., July 2.—Although the running of the St. Leger does not take place until September S. some desultory wagering has served to establish prices about the horses now deemed most likely to figure at the finish of the last of the year's classics. Bayardo's magnificent performance in the Sandringham Stakes at Sandown Park, in which Louviers ran unplaced, has served to engender a widespread belief that Mr. Fairie's cott has regained his invincible form as a two-year-old and has had the effect of making him the favorite for the big Doncaster race at 2 to 1, while 5 to 2 has been laid against the Derby winner, Minoru. After the Derby a belief was entertained by many that William the Fourth would have won it, had he not been a ground loser in the unfortunate accident that put Sir Martin out of the running and predictions were not infrequent to the effect that he would win the St. Leger. But his poor showing in the Grand Prix de Parls has largely dispelled this impression and he has commanded but weak support at 7 to 1. As for Louviers it is pointed out that he is not good in deep going, such as prevailed when he ran unplaced to Bayardo at Sandown Park, and that he will do much better at Doncaster if the going is hard. However that may be, 10 to 1 has been laid against him, at which price he has had considerable backing. Minoru is perfectly well and this provided to Bayardo in favoritestly well and this provided would have been backed, although 154 three-year-olds are still eligible. However, numbers do not count and he selected ones, the trend of St. Leger opinion at present being plainly indicated in such wagering as has taken place.

The different European racing societies to whe was submitted the proposal of forming a species check bank, issuing checks, after a preliming deposit of funds, enabling owners and others speculate at the mutuels without using ready monhave rejected the proposition.

A correspondent of the Sportsman signing himself H. L., and writing from Singapore under date Jane 3, informs us that Colonel Hall Walker is not correct in his translation of the name Minorn. Minoru's breeder suggested that the word means, in the Japanese. Success, H. L. says the correct translation is "to bear fruit." "to ripen." The Japanese word for success is "seiko."

So large was the foreign attendance at the Grand Prix de Paris that, a proper staff of men, with caps hearing the word "Interpreter," was engaged after the example shown by the authorities at Auteuil—to pilot visitors at Longchamps who were unable to epeak French fluently.

"Vigilant" writes in the Sportsman that, acting under medical advice. Danny Maher contemplates taking a year's rest after the conclusion of the cur-rent year's racing in order to revive his failing health.

A remarkable instance of virility in a stallion comes from Germany, where Red Prince II., the sire of Red Lad, second to Ascetic's Silver in the Grand National, which has arrived at the good old age of twenty years, has served 128 mares this season, 122 of which are in foal. Last year, seventy-six mares were bred to him.

The Austrian Oaks, value $7,500, run June 28, fell to the share of Aveline, a daughter of old Melton, out of Lady Averll, and so much was Baron de Springer, her owner, pleased by this performance, that he decided to start her in the Austrian Derby, and Danny Maher was called over to take the mount, and the start of the Berby, as Aveline performed prominently and was beaten only by Stixenstein.

News is to hand of the death at Hoppegarten, near Berlin, of the four-year-old, Faust, by Saraband. He was the best of the many good sons of Festa, sister to Desmond. The cause of death was a twisted intestine. Last season Faust won stakes to the value of $54,000, which stands as a record achievement for a three-year-old in Germany.

SANFORD STABLE A STRONG ONE.

New York, July 12.—John Sanford will race a big stable at Saratoga. He has nineteen two-year-olds—ten cotts and nine fillies—all bred at Hurricana Farm; also two three-year-olds, two four-year-olds and two live stables. He had been in various events at lifty particles and two live stables will be seen in various events at the Spa, their engagements being a follows; Ouecat's Song, b. f. by Clifford—Queen of Sang, in the Hoperon, Spingaway, Adirondack and Albany; Sada Onada, b. f. by Rockton—One I Love, in the Spingaway; Sat, Sada, Charles, Spingaway, Adirondack and Hoperon, b. c. by Rockton—Burgh Hills; Paron Dieskia, b. c. by Rockton—Burgh Hills; Paron Dieskia, b. c. by Rockton—Burgh Hills; Paron Dieskia, b. c. by Rockton—Caydoutta, in the Adirondac; Oglwaga, b. c. by Rockton—Caydoutta, in the United States Hotel and Flash; Ta Nun Da, b. c, by Chuctanunda—Mai, in the United States Hotel and Albany; Agnier, g. f. by Clifford—Maiest, in the Grand Union and Flash; Frosty, ch. f. by Rockton—White Frost, in the Grand Union Hotel; and Albany; Agnier, g. f. by Rockton—Lillian Belle, in the Albany Handleap. The Sanford horses will be raced at the Sheepshead Bay fall meeting.

POWERS IS PLEASING THE EASTERNERS.

New York, July 12.—Jockey V. Powers is winning new followers on the metropolitan tracks with each passing day. Local race-goers are convinced that Powers is without a peer in the saddle at present. The Sun says of his work:

"Powers is a natural horseman. He is coolheaded, conscientious and honest. He won his spurs in the west, but was always anxious to show his skill on the metropolitan tracks. If racing was the old game when jockeys commanded high salaries, Powers would be in a fair way to carn $30,000 this year. But he is satisfied, he says, to establish his reputation as a star fockey with the belief that the days of prosperity will come back and reward him for his work. Close observers say that Powers will prove to be one of the best riders that the American turf has ever developed. E. Dugan had it all his own way until Powers began riding here a few weeks ago, but he has met his master."

FUTURITY STAKES NOT UNDULY CUT.

New York, July 12.—The added money for the Great Filly Stakes of 1911 will be $2,500, which is one-half the amount which it was customary to add during the more prosperous days of the turf. The $5,000 to be added for the Futurities and Lauvence $5,000 to be added for the Futurities and Lauvence $5,000 to be added for the Futurities and Lauvence $5,000 to be added for the property of the $5,000 to be added for the property of the $5,000 to be added for the property of the $5,000 to be added to them ten years are with as much as was added to them ten years are when they were respectively the most valuable two year-old and three-year-old races run on this side of the Atlantic.

The Futurities and Realizations of 1911 and 1942 will not attract as many nominations as they drew between 1900 and 1908, because a number of valuable broodmares have been sent out of the country, but they will draw enough to make them big events.

GRIDIRON DONE FOR THIS SEASON.

New York, July 12.—It is improbable that Grid-iron will appear under colors again this season. Gridfron had previously bowed both tendons and he broke down flatly at Sheepshead Bay Friday. Trainer John Pangle is authority for the statement that he is done for, at least for this season and he will recommend that. David Dunlop ship the horse to Virginia to be turned out.

If Gridfron does not train again Mr. Dunlop will stand him at Coggin Hall, where he already has Duke of Kendal in the stud.
